

American Family Children's Hospital

I serve on the development advisory board for the American Family Children's Hospital, and I want to thank your organization for its gift to the hospital.

Gifts like yours mean so much to the hospital's patients and families, ensuring outstanding facilities and outstanding child-centered medical care.

Again, thank you!